Thank God For The Volunteers

Lyrics Cat Holland, sung to music of Thank God I'm a Country Boy by John Denver

Well life as a vollie is hardly laid back,
We work you pretty hard and don't cut you no slack,
But we couldn't do without you and we hope you're coming back,
Thank God for the Volunteers!

Well a simple kind of diet for the weekend, yes please
Another toasted sanga with tomato ham 'n cheese,
Then you wash it down with some coffees or teas,
Thank God for the Volunteers!

Well we gave you a shirt and we gave you your roster,
With your lanyard and hat you sure ain't no imposter,
And when it's quiet you can listen to Don Costa
Thank God for the Volunteers!

Well without the Volunteers our festival would flop
We'd be really stuffed without you – is that a fair cop?
So please come back next year and don't leave us on the hop
Thank God for the Volunteers!

I'd pay you lots of money for your work if I could
But the Moreton Bay Council wouldn't take it very good
But we 'ppreciate and love you as of course we should
Thank God for the Volunteers!

Well we gave you a shirt and we gave you your roster
With your lanyard and hat you sure ain't no imposter
And on your breaks you can line dance to Don Costa
